Superior Coverage

Coverage for the Insured's Direct Loss (First-Party Loss)

- Ransom Payments: Expenses or payments to respond to a cyber extortion demand or ransomware attack.
- Data & System Recovery: Costs to restore the computer system to the same level of functionality that existed prior to a cyber event and to restore, retrieve, repair, or reinstall electronic data or software damaged from a cyber event.
- Business Interruption: Income loss and expenses incurred during the interruption or slowdown of operations caused by a cyber event at your business.
- Business Interruption from Suppliers: Income loss and expenses suffered by the company due to a vendor or supplier experiencing a cyber event of their own.
- Reputational Harm: Income loss incurred due to a cyber event becoming public and hurting the company's reputation.
- Cyber Incident Response: Expenses to respond to a cyber event, including:
 - Legal Services
 - Computer Forensic Services
 - Notification of affected individuals and credit monitoring
 - Public relations
- Cyber Deception: Financial fraud, phishing attack loss, and telecommunications fraud loss sustained because of a social engineering event or impersonation attempt.
- Cryptojacking: Malicious software that uses the computer's power and resources to mine for digital currency – this can interrupt your own operations, lead to huge electricity bills and shorten the life of your computers and other devices.

Coverage for Claims Brought Against an Insured (Third-Party Liability)

- Privacy and Network Liability: Defense against claims filed against your business because of a cyber event.
- Regulatory Fines: Fines and penalties imposed by a governmental agency resulting from a cyber event or violation of privacy regulations.
- Payment Card Penalties: For companies that take credit card payments, there is coverage for forensic investigation costs, fines, penalties, and assessments that businesses owe to the credit card companies because of a cyber event on their systems.
- Media Liability: Defense against claims alleging improper material on your company's website or in print media, such as copyright infringement.
